Stephens City Lions ready to serve hectic Route 11 Yard Crawl location Aug 10

Stephens City

Stephens City (Newtown Commons and Old School sites) will be one of the top three busiest locations during the 19th Annual Route 11 Yard Crawl on Saturday August 10. Comprising a total of 140 vendor spaces, only the Shenandoah Valley Flea Market in New Market (160 vendors) and the Strasburg Emporium (150 vendors) are busier.

The Chair of the Stephens City Lions Club Yard Crawl Committee, Dudley Rinker says that 100 vendor spaces are available for rent at Newtown Commons at 5165 Main Street and another 40 at the Stephens City Old School complex at 5516 Main Street. The cost is $25 per spot. Vendors can join spaces if they require additional room. Some vendors plan to hold out, waiting to determine if the weather will be suitable before renting.

the Yard Crawl partnership in 2008.

The Stephens City Lionesses will be selling coffee, bottled water, and soft drinks. Butter biscuits with sausage, and Danish will be served in the morning and hot dogs and potato chips in the afternoon. The Lions will also be selling Lions t-shirts, brooms, and their famous home-made Apple Butter, cooked all day in copper kettles, and poured in pint size jars.

According to Rinker, “traditional outdoor festival favorites are wood fired pizza and BBQ, however creative hot dogs and hamburgers continue to sell well along with tacos and burritos. “When it comes to sweets, old staples are what is sought after such as Kettle Korn, ice cream, funnel cakes and cotton candy. Festival beverage choices are orange drinks, lemonade, and sweet and unsweet ice tea. The Lions seek additional food vendors, whenever possible, to enhance the yard crawl experience.”

Rinker believes the Fall season is overwhelmed with Shenandoah Valley events. So, the Yard Crawl was best suited for an early August date, as it is a slow time before school starts, but a perfect time for yard crawlers, tourists, and visitors. Approximately one third of the residents living on Stephens City’s Main Street also set up on front porches to sell their own wares. Between vendors and locals as many Rinker and the Lions Club are grateful that the Town of Stephens City offers the use of the Newtown Commons Park to the Lions Club for vendor spaces free of charge and arranges for enhanced police coverage during the event. Stephens City joined

Strasburg Community Library rocks with kindness

During the regularly scheduled pre-school Thursday story time at the Strasburg Community Library, Stephani Soorenko read the story “Scribble Stones” which helped the children prepare for the new rock garden presentation.

The Strasburg Community Library is located at 195 W. King Street in Strasburg, Virginia.

By Carol Ballard
Warren/Frederick County Report

The first day of August found preschoolers, parents, grandparents and teachers at the Strasburg Community Library attending a joyful story time event in the colorful, book-lined kid-friendly room complete with child-size tables and chairs.

The activities scheduled for the 10 a.m. story time on Thursday centered around the library’s new rock garden.

The “Scribble Stones” book by Diane Alber about a lonely stone that found its purpose as a painted “kindness” rock had given Stephani Soorenko the idea of creating the garden, and she was asked to read it during the event presided over by retired teacher Kathy Doyle.

Before the story, Kathy engaged the eager children with fun songs, exercises, and by listening to their questions and observations.

The event was held during the usual story time for kids aged 2-5, but this day was especially fun because they would get to paint rocks for the garden then participate in choosing ones that had already been painted that they would find there.

She said this was a big turnout for the session and the room was filled with kids and the participating adults who accompanied them.

After they painted the rocks, the children were led outside to the rock garden. They were instructed to go two at a time, select the “kindness” rocks they liked, and were told they could visit the garden again at another time to add new ones or bring those back to Stephani Soorenko and Strasburg Community Library Operations Manager Amy Jett are proud of the rock garden they worked as a team to create, with the goal of spreading kindness in the community.

KEEP THE BARBECUE FIRED UP

Backyard barbecues remain popular even when the summer slowly begins to wind down. Though traditional favorites like hamburgers and hot dogs always have a place at the table, grilling aficionados may be on the lookout for new recipes to test their skills.

“Buttermilk Chicken Kebabs” from “Casablanca: My Moroccan Food” (Firefly Books) by Nargisse Benkabbou does not disappoint. Even though buttermilk is not a traditional Moroccan ingredient, the author uses it to tenderize the chicken and make these kebabs even more mouthwatering with an added hint of tang. These smoky skewers can be enjoyed on their own, or cooked and added to salads or served on flatbreads.

Buttermilk Chicken Kebabs

Serves 4 as a starter

- 1/2 cup buttermilk
- 1/2 cup fresh cilantro, finely chopped
- 3 garlic cloves, peeled and chopped
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 tablespoon clear honey
- 1 teaspoon ground turmeric
- 1 teaspoon ground ginger
- 1 teaspoon ground cumin
- 1/2 teaspoon salt, or more to taste
- 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 1 pound, 2 ounces boneless, skinless chicken thighs or breasts, cut into bite-sized chunks

Place all of the ingredients, except the chicken, in a large bowl and stir to combine. Add the chicken and turn to coat with the marinade. Cover with the plastic wrap and leave to marinate in the fridge for 2 to 12 hours.

When ready to serve, thread the pieces of chicken onto skewers. Preheat a barbecue or heat a griddle or skillet over high heat. Place the skewers on your barbecue or skillet and cook for 5 minutes on each side, turning every now and then, until golden on all sides and cooked through. Serve immediately.

This has been chronicled on Wikipedia.

"The Kindness Rocks Project was started by Megan Murphy in 2015 on Cape Cod. She wrote 'You've got this' on a rock and left it on a beach on Cape Cod. After a friend found it, she started leaving more rocks with inspirational messages behind. It then became a viral trend where people, commonly children, paint pebbles or cobbles and leave them for others to find and collect. Photos of the painted rocks and hints of where to find them are often shared on Facebook groups. The trend originated in the U.S. and has spread to other countries, including U.K., Australia, New Zealand, and Haiti.

“Alice Brock, a Cape Cod resident who had been painting rock art since the 1960s, claimed credit for helping spread the phenomenon worldwide by sending painted rocks to her friends and family in New York City and Europe.

“As the trend of painting kindness rocks has spread, it has many derivatives but remains true to its original intention of spreading kindness. Rocks are painted as a social-emotional learning activity for kids, as well as to support particular charities, events or movements. Sometimes the name of a hashtag or the Facebook group the painter belongs to is written on it as well.

“Generally, rocks which are hidden are intended to be picked up, photographed and put on Facebook, and then re-hidden in a different spot. However, different rock groups may have different ideas; some might be asked to be taken as far as possible, and others hidden in the same city or general region. The Kindness Rocks Project encourages people to set up community Inspiration gardens and the painting rock trend was revived during the COVID-19 pandemic.”

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle! (Answer in back.)

Alliance: 'Feral cats and kittens need YOU'

Feral cats and their kittens get medical attention through the Community Cat Alliance Trap/Neuter/Return organization.

Rescued infant kittens that have been brought in from the cold, snuggle up in a warm winter shelter, to be fed and cared for by trained foster "parent" volunteers, then wait to be adopted permanently.

Compassionate volunteers working with the Community Cat Alliance pick up food for cats and kittens.

By Carol Ballard
Warren/Frederick Report

"We take them and find them

Out in the wild, life is not easy for feral cats, but the Community Cat Alliance is set up to help with the overwhelming number of animals in this situation.

Warren/Frederick County Report Newspaper is currently seeking a motivated commission-based advertising sales representative. Set your own hours. Call/Text Dan 540-305-3000.

homes," said Lydia Mahan, who describes herself as a volunteer, but wears several other hats as board member, adoption coordinator, trapper and foster parent. Added to that, she helps with transport and overnight care and is on the fundraising committee.

Lydia, when contacted by phone, admitted that she currently has the intense schedule of a new mother. She is fostering nine kittens from three litters, five of them only four weeks old, and needing bottle-feeding every 4-5 hours.

But they don't recommend that for everyone, given that it's a lot of work.

"I'm already set up for it and have been doing it for 30 years," she explained. "We would be happy if someone would foster even one litter! We have so many kittens right now taken from the 'field.'"

When the caretakers who check the traps bring in kittens that the mother cat can't take care of, they work with them. The kittens she has right now have mothers who have been or will be spayed and are being cared for with food and shelter by their caregivers.

"We may help them with on-going food and medicine," she added.

Lydia believes that helping take care of dogs, feral cats and kittens is almost a social responsibility.

"If anyone can, it's a really good way to help the community," she said. "A lot of people might think it's not necessary, or stupid, but anyone who can help staunch any sort of suffering should step up. It's a good way of giving back."

Also, she asks folks to please look to rescue animals if they want a new pet.

"I realize that many people want purebred pets, but many shelters do have purebred rescues, although less so for cats," she noted. "But they're trying to pick up the slack for cats."

Lydia said they work with local organizations like the Winchester area SPCA, Shady Paws, Homeward Trails and Dakota's Dream.

Out of the elements and safe from predators, this contented kitten is ready to be adopted into a loving home.

“We conference with and contact them about kittens and use donations we get to pay them for spay and neutering, and they will put kittens on their adoption floor,” she said. “We don’t have a brick-and-mortar place. “All our volunteers work from home.”

She talked about the years she lived in Vermont and the system they had for unwanted animals.

“There was a 24-hour drop-off point that people could take dogs and cats to at any time,” she recalled. “But if we tried to implement that here, we’d be quickly overrun.”

So what they do here is different.

They have a system in place for people who rehome kittens. When kittens are brought in, volunteers take care of them until they weigh two pounds or are 8-10 weeks old. Then they go to the clinic, to be vaccinated for distemper and rabies and given treatment for fleas and ear mites.

After all that, they go back to the foster parents and from there, hopefully to a forever home.

“We’re not eligible for state or federal funds and no town has our work in their budget, so we do fundraisers,” she explained.

For example, this fall there will be a fundraiser at Winchester’s Vibrissa from 11-4 on October 13.

“Our money also comes from donations in amounts like $25,” she said. “These that people send in are so important.”

And there are many other ways folks can help.

She wrote this appeal hoping for a response from people to answer the call for help that is needed right now.

Asking for volunteers

“A friend of mine once said, ‘They make the world go round.’

He was talking about volunteers, and in fact, they do a lot to pick up the slack, the extra pieces that often get left behind.

“I’m a volunteer and I can certainly attest to the fact that I pick up a lot of ‘extra pieces.’ I volunteer with a charity organization called Community Cat Alliance (CCA) and our mission is TNR, Trap-Neuter-Return in Frederick County here in Virginia. It can be challenging work, and without question, it is rewarding work.

“We are a small group of men and women who have felt a passionate calling to help those who cannot speak for themselves, namely feral and abandoned cats, and often times, their kittens, many of whom are in desperate need of medical care. We go into the field and work with caretakers who are doing their best to feed and shelter colonies of cats, or one or two cats. But the need is the same; all of these cats and kittens need to be spayed and neutered to stop the pervasive overpopulation of cats and kittens in our area.

“We are in the midst of kitten season and there is a tremendous need for foster homes. All you need is a bathroom, an unused guest room. Kittens are taken from the field and evaluated by our Medical Coordinator. If kittens need to see a vet, CCA arranges the visit with the foster parent’s schedule, and we pay for the visit.

“We provide foster parents with what they may need: Food, toys, litter and litter boxes, medicine like Pyrantel which is a broad-spectrum wormer. If you need to leave for vacation, we will provide respite for your kittens.

“In fact, we welcome homes that only want to do periodic respite!"

 "When kittens are two pounds (about 8 weeks), we arrange for them to go to a clinic to be vaccinated and spayed and neutered. We then return them to you and the next step is for one of our partners to take them and adopt them into their Forever Homes.

"If having kittens in your home is not feasible, we have other needs that may be interesting. Social media your thing? We put out a periodic Mewsletter that we could use your help with. Are you a Facebook expert? You could help us. Interested in going into the school systems to help educate the next generation about the importance of spaying and neutering all pets? How about attending local Chamber of Commerce events, or becoming an ambassador for CCA by becoming a Rotary member?

If you're interested in trapping, we will train you, and provide you with traps. Periodic transport? We need folks with cars large enough to accommodate several traps and carriers to transport cats and kittens to the vet clinic and back - not every week, but once a month. We need folks who are willing to drive to Staunton, Virginia to pick up low-cost cat food we pay for and then pass on to our caretakers. Fundraising? Lend us a hand. Make a gift basket, help with publicity, record a Public Service Announcement for us, write an article.

"CCA tends to attract folks who are retired. Makes sense, right? Retired people have flex schedules. But even if you work full-time, and have children, if this is a cause you are passionate about, we can find one of those extra pieces that works for you and your family. Look us up, check us out.

"We work hard, we do good work."
 "Without a doubt, the volunteers at Community Cat Alliance need your help. The abandoned and stray 'community cats' out there who have been dumped and born in the field need you even more. Think about it. Do it. And if you can't help us with any of the above a $20 donation will go further than you think. Thank you!"

HOROSCOPES

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20
 Aries, you hold the key to success right now, so everyone wants to be in your corner. Take things in stride and maintain your focus while accepting all the support.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21
 Taurus, it is important that you streamline your workflow this week; otherwise, you may not meet the deadlines imposed upon you. Start implementing a new strategy.

GEMINI – May 22/June 21
 This is the week to take the road less traveled, Gemini. Blaze your own trail, get out into the wilderness and possibly expand your horizons. A spontaneous idea like this can pay dividends.

CANCER – June 22/July 22
 Cancer, someone in your social circle could be shielding the truth and it may frustrate you. But you can't come out and accuse this person without proof. Step back for the time being.

LEO – July 23/Aug 23
 An important relationship could be coming to an end for you, Leo. You could try to salvage things, but you have to look at the bigger picture and determine if it is good to move on.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22
 Virgo, you have been coasting along without a firm direction for too long at this point. While it may have been working for you, you will soon fare better with a more concrete plan.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23
 Be mindful of other people's situations before you engage with them, Libra. What may be a good time for you will not necessarily be ideal for those around you.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22
 Scorpio, someone in your life has proven worthy of more attention. Give this person a little extra love in the days to come, and direct your focus to having a good time.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21
 Social activities seemingly bloom around you this week, Sagittarius. There could be so much going on that you don't know where to get started. Perhaps let friends lead the festivities.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20
 Remember, Capricorn, others are not just listening to what you say, they are reading into your actions. Make sure you are genuine in both your words and gestures this week.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18
 This week you may have to take the first step in rekindling an important relationship, Aquarius. Are you ready to be the catalyst?

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20
 There is not much you can do about financial issues, Pisces. Make an effort to start spending less, which may be the catalyst for a real examination of your budget.

Belle Grove Plantation to Host 13th Annual Wine Fest on Saturday, August 24, 11 a.m.-6 p.m.

Belle Grove Plantation will host its annual Wine Festival on Saturday, August 24, 2024, from 11:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. celebrating local beverages and food. Tickets are on sale now at www.bellegrove.org or in the Belle Grove Museum Shop. This year's event features wineries and distilleries that have never attended the festival before.

Guests with tasting tickets will receive a souvenir glass and can sample from 18 beverage providers including Chateau O'Brien at Northpoint (Markham), Mataponi Winery (Spotsylvania Courthouse), Narmada Winery (Amissville), North Mountain Vineyard & Winery (Maurertown), Notaviva Farm Brewery & Winery (Hillsboro), Philip Carter Winery of Virginia (Hume), Star in the Valley Estate Winery (Strasburg), Third Hill Winery at DeMello Vineyards (Quicksburg), Wolf Gap Vineyard (Edinburg), and Zoll Vineyard (Dutton). In addition to wine, there will be tastings from Honey and Hops Brew Works (Front Royal), Saga Meadery (Front Royal), Cobbler Mountain Cidery (Delaplane), Box Office Brewery (Strasburg), Falls Church Distillery (Manassas), MurLark Distilled Spirits (Bristow), Springfield Distillery (Halifax), and Copper Fox Distillery (Sperryville), maker of Belle Grove 1797 Whiskey.

The tasting ticket also allows guests to purchase products by the glass, bottle, or case. There will be a tent where guests may check bags with their purchases, so that they may enjoy all the activities at the event, such as tours of the historic Manor House and chef demonstrations.

The festival features live music all day. From 11:15 a.m.-2:15 p.m. Meisha Heron and her band will take the stage performing acoustic blues, soul, and rock. From 3:00-5:30 p.m. Mojo Mothership will be playing their "funky Southern fried" rhythm and blues. While the bands switch between 2-3 p.m., Wine Fest attendees will have a chance to see a sheepherding demonstration. Belle Grove will be the site of U.S. Border Collie Handler Association's National Sheepdog Finals, September 30-October 6, 2024.

Food trucks participating in Wine Fest are Daily Buzz Café (Stephens City and Middletown) selling mac and cheese, nachos, hot dogs, iced coffee, and smoothies, Happy Family Ranch with farm to table tacos, burgers, and quesadillas, Rick's Jerk Pit serving authentic Caribbean and soul food, Roaming Bistro (Winchester) preparing street food from around the world, and Sugar Creek Snowy and Sweet Company (Woodstock) vending their popular ice cream, snoballs, and lemonade.

Local food and culinary traditions will also be highlighted in four chef demonstrations at Wine Fest. At noon, Chef Kari Rushing will dish up one of her elevated, vintage style Appalachian meals made noteworthy at her restaurant Vault & Cellar. At 1 p.m. Personal Chef Rachael Wood of Indulgence by Rachael will prepare apple dumplings. At 3 p.m. Beekeepers of the Northern Shenandoah (BONS) will discuss the importance of bees to the food chain. At 4 p.m. Belle Grove volunteer historic recipe interpreter and tester, Valerie Haddox, will prepare Blackberry Vinegar from a Hite family cookbook. Belle Grove's Wine Fest is one of the first events of Hungry for History, a ten-day celebration of local history as seen through food (<https://visitwinchesterva.com/hungry-for-history-food-event/>).

There will be more than 30 artisan and merchandise vendors at Wine Fest that highlight local food, products, and businesses. A full list is available on the event website. The Belle Grove Museum Shop in the Beverley B. Shoemaker Welcome Center will be open during the festival, and it is the perfect place to find local history books and unique items made by area artists and producers.

Advanced tasting tickets are on sale now for $30 at www.bellegrove.org or in the Belle Grove Museum Shop. On the day of the event, tasting tickets may be purchased for $35 at the gate (cash and credit cards accepted). Admission includes a souvenir tasting glass, all tastings, access to all vendors, performances, demonstrations, and tours of the historic Manor House. General admission is $15 for visitors who do not wish to do tastings, are designated drivers, or who are under age 21. The designated driver ticket includes two complementary non-alcoholic beverages but does not permit purchase of alcoholic beverages. Wine Fest is a rain or shine event.

Sponsors for Wine Fest include Crescent Cities Charities, Shenandoah Country Q102, 99.3 The Fox, and Kiss 98.3, Sandy and Ric Dunkle, Edward Jones Front Royal, and Michelle and Edward Kotulski.

For the latest information, visit www.bellegrove.org or www.facebook.com/BelleGrove. Guests may bring chairs and pop-up tents but pets, large backpacks, and outside food or drink may not be brought onto festival grounds. Belle Grove Plantation is off Route 11 at 336 Belle Grove Road just south of Middletown, Virginia 22645 and is conveniently located to I-81 (use exit 302) and I-66.

Belle Grove is a non-profit, historic house museum on 283 acres that is still farmed today and has panoramic Shenandoah Valley views. It is a National Trust for Historic Preservation site and a partner in the Cedar Creek and Belle Grove National Historical Park. Wine Fest supports Belle Grove's preservation and education programs and is one of its most significant annual fundraisers.

Ask Stewart

Hey Stewart,

Heard any good tree jokes lately?

- Lisa

Nope, but I've heard some bad ones. What's a tree's favorite band? The BEECH Boys
Why did the tree refuse to play checkers?

It was a CHESS-nut
What's a tree's favorite subject in school? GeomeTREE
How do you know when a tree has had too much root beer?

He won't stop texting his AX
How do you identify a dogwood tree? By its BARK
What type of tree likes to give high fives?

A PALM tree
Where do saplings go to learn? ElemenTREE school
How did the lumberjack know how many trees he cut down?
He kept a LOG

If you only have enough time to say one word to Edgar Allan Poe who is about to walk into a tree. What do you say?

Poetry
Some of those jokes were pretty sappy. For a TREE-mendous good time, you should BRANCH out and attend the Tree Stewards ALL ABOUT TREES class starting in September. The details are at the Tree Stewards website listed below.
Your Pal in the Trees,

- Stewart

The Front Royal/Warren County Tree Steward program began in 1997 with volunteers dedicated to improving the health of trees by providing educational programs, tree planting and care demonstrations, and tree maintenance throughout the community. The group now consists of over 30 active members with several interns working toward becoming certified tree stewards from our annual "All About Trees Class". Each month Stewart will answer a question from our readers. Please forward it to

"Stewart" in care of: frwctreestewards@comcast.net and we may publish it in a future issue. Please visit our website at: www.treesfromroyal.org
